Camino Francés, Logroño to Burgos - Spain

Camino de Santiago

7 days, PRICE FROM € 540

This section of the Camino Francés, the Camino de Santiago Logroño to Burgos, leads you from the lively wine city of Logroño through the vineyards and rolling landscapes of La Rioja, into the quieter plains of Castile, and finally to the historic streets of Burgos. It's a varied route that blends gentle countryside, traditional villages and places that have welcomed pilgrims for centuries.

The walking is steady and enjoyable, with well-marked paths and a natural progression from vineyard-covered hills to the wider, more open terrain of northern Castile. Along the way, you'll experience two of the Camino's most iconic regions — La Rioja and Castilla y León — each with its own character, history and rhythm.

This itinerary offers a balanced combination of scenery, culture and classic Camino atmosphere, making the Camino de Santiago Logroño to Burgos a rewarding and memorable stretch of the Way.

Route

Day 1 Arrival in Logroño

Arrive in Logroño, the lively capital of La Rioja. Take time to explore the historic centre, stroll through its atmospheric streets and enjoy local pintxos paired with the region's excellent wines. It's a relaxed and welcoming place to begin your Camino.

Day 2 Walk from Logroño to Nájera, 29 km

Leaving Logroño, the path leads through parks and small lakes before opening into the vineyards and farmland that define La Rioja. The terrain is gentle, with a mix of country lanes and dirt tracks offering steady progress. You pass through several small villages before reaching Nájera, a riverside town with a rich monastic past and a characteristic pilgrim atmosphere.

Distance: 29 km

Day 3 Walk from Nájera to Santo Domingo de la Calzada, 22 km

Today's stage continues through Rioja's rolling landscape, where vineyards gradually give way to the softer hills and cultivated fields of the region's interior. The walk leads through quiet rural villages before arriving in Santo Domingo de la Calzada, one of the most iconic towns on the Camino, known for its impressive cathedral and long pilgrim history.

Distance: 22 km

Day 4 Walk from Santo Domingo de la Calzada a Belorado, 23 km

The route begins with gentle farmland before slowly transitioning toward Castilla y León. The scenery becomes wider and more open, with long stretches that encourage an easy, comfortable rhythm. Belorado is a welcoming small town with friendly squares and a relaxed atmosphere — an ideal stop after a day of steady walking.

Distance: 23 km

Day 5 Walk from Belorado to San Juan de Ortega, 25 km

Leaving Belorado, the path leads through a series of small villages before entering the wooded foothills that precede Burgos. The terrain becomes slightly more varied, with gradual climbs and shaded stretches that offer a nice change of scenery. The day ends in San Juan de Ortega, a tiny hamlet centred around its historic monastery — a peaceful and atmospheric stop deeply connected to the Camino's medieval history.

Distance: 25 km

Day 6 Walk from San Juan de Ortega to Burgos, 21 km

Today's stage begins through forests and farmland before descending gradually toward the outskirts of Burgos. As you approach the city, the landscape transitions from rural paths to suburban streets until you reach the historic centre, home to one of Spain's greatest Gothic cathedrals. Burgos is a lively and rewarding final destination, full of history, restaurants and places to relax after your hike.

Distance: 21 km

Day 7 ¡Adiós, Burgos!

After today's breakfast your trip comes to an end. Time to return home with all the experiences this pilgrimage has provided you with along this tour or continue your pilgrimage towards Santiago!
