Camino del Norte, Oviedo to Ribadeo - Spain

The 4th stage of Camino del Norte walking

10 days, PRICE FROM € 782

A trip along the Camino del Norte - the Northern, coastal way to Santiago, alternating between dramatic coasts and the rugged Galician mountains; it's a beautiful trip of contrasts - fishing villages and modern cities, beautiful beaches and lush forests.

Route

Day 1 Arrival in Oviedo

Today you arrive in Asturias: in Oviedo, the camino begins in San Salvador, a holy site with a gorgeous Cathedral. This evening you'll enjoy the city's lively atmosphere, charming lanes in the old town and traditional cider houses.

Day 2 Oviedo - Avilés, 26 km

The first day of the pilgrimage takes you from the capital of Asturias to the coastal city of Avilés. Walking on the mount Naranco foothills, you'll experience a mix of urban and rural landscapes until reaching Avilés with its impressive old town.

Distance: 26 Km

Ascent/Descent: +370/-590 m

Day 3 Avilés - Muros del Nalón, 23 km

Your journey continues along the coastline, with serene views of the sea and traditional Asturian architecture, until arriving in Muros de Nalón. Once reached the banks of Nalón River, look up to see the San Martín Castle guarding the Camino from its promontory.

Distance: 23 Km

Ascent/Descent: +560/-450m

Day 4 Muros del Nalón - Soto de Luiña, 15 km

Leaving Muros de Nalón, you'll venture through picturesque Asturian countryside on your way to Soto de Luiña - a meditative walk through lush landscapes and on quite trails, perfect to feel a sense of peace and connection with nature, with frequent but moderate slopes offering fun little challenges on the way.

Distance: 15 Km

Ascent/Descent: +430/-540m

Day 5 Soto de Luiña - Cadavedo,19 km

One of the most beautiful stages of the entire Camino awaits, taking you on the coast with great views over the cliffs and on the beaches, eventually reaching the charming village of Cadavedo, known for its stunning beaches and tranquil atmosphere.

Distance: 19 Km

Ascent/Descent: +580/-510m

Day 6 Cadavedo - Luarca,15 km

Placid, pleasant and short stage, with onw final stretch well rewarded by the arrival in gorgeous Luarca. This coastal gem is celebrated for its white-washed buildings, fishing harbor, and natural beauty.

Distance: 15 Km

Ascent/Descent: +220/-300m

Day 7 Luarca - Navia, 20 km

Today you will advance away from the coast, passing through numerous towns and through rolling hills and peaceful woodlands before arriving the coastal town of Navia.

Distance: 20 Km

Ascent/Descent: +360/-350 m

Day 8 Navia - Tapia de Casariego, 21 km

Your journey unfolds along the coast as you head to Tapia. The path provides stunning views of the sea and serene beaches. Tapia, a coastal village known for its fishing traditions, with its charming little harbour, offers a tranquil respite for pilgrims.

Distance: 21 Km

Ascent/Descent: +280/-280 m

Day 9 Tapia de Casariego - Ribadeo,12 km

Today you will walk through very beautiful places, always near the coast and through beautiful beaches - such as Penarronda beach stands out - and its cliffs on this flat walk. Crossing the river Eo you will leave Asturias and will enter in Galicia, the region where Santiago is. Ribadeo, with its beautiful estuary and lively atmosphere, is a perfect place to end your Camino.

Distance: 12 Km

Ascent/Descent: +110/-110 m

Day 10 Arrivederci, Ribadeo!

After breakfast your arrangement comes to an end.

If you feel like more adventure and you feel like continuing walking, you can combine this trip with the next stage of the Camino.
