Langhe: in Piedmont, Barbera to Barolo - Italy

Langhe: in Piedmont, Barbera to Barolo

8 days, PRICE FROM € 831

Piemonte is Italy's paradise for true connoisseurs of mouth-watering food, truffles and fabulous wines. Set between the Alps and the Apennine mountains, the Langhe region offers fertile lands that produce the prized Tuber Magnatum – the renowned white truffle – and some of Italy's most prestigious red wines, including Barolo and Barbera. Here you can discover an impressive variety of local specialties such as gourmet cheeses, pastries and chocolates appreciated all over the world.

This walking trip follows the scenic Barbera Barolo Walking Trail, guiding you across a magnificent landscape of rolling hills dotted with small picturesque villages, elegant castles and ancient towers. You will walk through vineyards and hazelnut forests, staying in charming rural villages where warm hospitality and excellent local cuisine complete the experience.

Route

Day 1 Arrive in Alba

Arrive in Alba, the heart of Piedmont wine country, a captivating medieval city of a "hundred towers" and a treasure chest of flavours and aromas. After checking in, go out for a walk to explore the town and why not stop in one of its many divine pastry shops to tempt your palate. Treat yourself to the sweet tastes of Italy.

Day 2 From Roddi to Barolo or Vergne, 18 km o 15 km

A transfer takes you to Roddi or Verduno (to shorten the walk). Crossing several hills you reach the rustic village of La Morra from where you continue to the hamlet of Vergne and on route you have several wine tasting options. On clear days you can see the Alps and Mt. Monviso that stay snow capped till the beginning of summer.

Distance: 18 o 15 km

Elevation gain: +522 -426 m

Day 3 From Barolo to Monforte d'Alba, 11 km

Passing by the old village of Novello, with its Middle Age tower you reach the wine capital of Barolo, where this famous wine is produced. You can visit the museum in the Castello dei Marchesi Faletti and the Regional wine museum, a must for any wine connoisseur. After a varying walk through the vineyards and forests, you arrive in Monforte d'Alba, a nice hill top village.

Distance: 11 km

Elevation gain: +440/ -415 m

Day 4 From Monforte d'Alba to Cissone, 15 km

The landscape is far more varied than on the previous days as you leave the vineyards behind and climb through tidy hazelnut forests and wild woods surrounding the ancient hamlet of Serralunga d'Alba. From here a steep climb brings you to Roddino from where a long descent takes you to the final climb up to Cissone.

Distance: 15 km

Elevation gain: +806/ -665 m

Day 5 Cissone round walk, 8 km

A glass of local wine from a traditional "cantina" in the centre of the village is a lovely way to celebrate this day of relaxing and taking it easy. After a short circular walk in the neighborhood of Cissone, unwind and admire the splendid views from the farm. The scenery is a unique spectacle, embroidered with vineyards and dotted with towers and castles.

Distance: 8 km

Elevation gain: +300/-300 m

Day 6 From Cissone to Cravanzana, 17,5 km

The landscape of the high Langhe area around Cissone is characterised by hazelnut forests and those slopes that are too steep to be cultivated are covered by oaks. This is also the area where you find the most precious of the local treasure: the 'Tuber Magnatum', also known as 'the white truffle of Alba' and, if you don't find it underground, you are sure to find it at the local restaurant.

Distance: 17,5 km

Elevation gain: +650/-870 m

Day 7 From Cravanzana to Cortemilia, 12 km

Today the landscape is as varied as the walk itself. You visit the villages of Torre Bormida and Bergolo that you reach crossing hazelnut plantations and dense chestnut woods using broad forest paths, small grassy trails and narrow cobbled streets until you reach the town of Cortemilia. On clear days the view on the hills and the Alps is breath-taking.

Distance: 12 km

Elevation gain: +485/-755 m

Day 8 Arrivederci Cortemilia!

Our services end after breakfast unless you have booked another service with us.
